Space Cat landed safely
on the planet.

“I’ll go outside
and look for some fuel,” he said.

“I will stay here
and fix the fuel tank,” said Earl.

“Then I will fix dinner.
A robot never gives up.”

King Zorp took Space Cat
into another big room.

He pushed a button.

BUZZ! CLANK! CLANK!

The machines rattled and puffed.
The room rumbled
with all the noise.
